1 About First State Super

First State Super is a profit for member superannuation fund run solely for the benefit of members. As one of Australia's largest superannuation funds, we use our size and stability to keep costs down and deliver a range of superannuation, insurance and retirement income products as well as financial planning services.

You have a choice of 12 investment options. If you don't want to make a choice, your super will be invested in our MySuper Life Cycle strategy. MySuper was introduced by the government to give members who don't choose their own fund access to a simple, low-cost super option.

Our latest MySuper product dashboards are available on our website at firststatesuper.com.au/dashboards.

You can stay with the fund if you change jobs, or even if you're not working. We also offer retirement income products for when you prepare for, and move into, retirement.

Important information about the fund and the trustee, including trustee and executive remuneration, is available on our website at firststatesuper.com.au/policies.

2 How super works

Compulsory retirement savings

The federal government wants Australians to save for their retirement rather than rely solely on the age pension, so superannuation has tax incentives to encourage people to contribute. See Section 7 – How super is taxed.

For most people, superannuation is compulsory. Generally, employers are required by law to make superannuation guarantee (SG) contributions on behalf of employees earning $450 or more (before-tax) per month. Some awards and enterprise agreements have different requirements.

Choosing a super fund

Most employees have the right to choose the superannuation fund into which their compulsory employer contributions will be paid (choice of fund). This Member Booklet summarises the key features of First State Super so you can easily compare it with other super funds.

Accessing your super

Generally, you can access your super when you reach your preservation age (between 55 and 60 depending on your date of birth) and permanently retire, although you can draw income from your super account as a transition to retirement income stream once you reach your preservation age. In some circumstances, such as severe financial hardship, you may be allowed early access to your super.

Combine your super

If you have super with more than one fund, you will be paying fees to, and receiving paperwork from, each fund. If you have super with other funds, you can transfer it to First State Super, but remember to check if exit fees apply and whether you will lose and be able to get the equivalent type of insurance cover with us. You should also consider where future employer contributions may be paid. You can look for lost super and combine multiple accounts using the search and combine tool on our website at firststatesuper.com.au/combine.

Your super account

Your super is in an accumulation account. Contributions and rollovers are added to your account, while withdrawals, insurance premiums, fees (except for investment fees) and taxes are deducted from your account.

Contributions

In addition to the SG, there are other types of contributions that can be made to your super to build your retirement savings. The types of contributions available to you depend on your age and employment status. There are limits on how much can be contributed to your super each financial year without incurring additional tax. See the Member Booklet Supplement: How super works for more detailed information. The main types of super contributions that can be made to super are shown in Table 1.

Table 1: Contribution types

Concessional (before-tax) contributions
Employer SG, award and employer voluntary contributions
Salary sacrifice
Personal deductible contributions
Non-concessional (after-tax) contributions
Personal contributions
Spouse contributions
Other contributions

Low-income superannuation tax offset

 You should read the important information about how super works, contributions and preservation rules before making a decision. Go to the fund's website at firststatesuper.com.au/pds and read the Member Booklet Supplement: How super works. The material relating to how super works, contributions and preservation rules may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

4 Risks of super

Investment risk

All investments carry some risk. Your super may be invested in different asset classes (such as shares, fixed income, property and cash) and each of these can rise or fall in value. The amount and frequency of these rises and falls is referred to as the risk profile. Different strategies may carry different levels of risk, depending on the assets that make up the strategy. Assets with the highest long-term returns may also carry the highest level of short-term risk.

The risk profile of each investment option depends on the asset classes in which the option invests. Each pre-mixed investment option is made up of a mix of asset classes, so the overall risk of these options depends on the proportion allocated to each asset class. Each single asset class investment option reflects the risk profile of that particular asset class.

When choosing an investment option for your super, you need to consider the level of investment risk that is appropriate for you, which depends on your age, investment timeframe, where other parts of your wealth are invested and your risk tolerance. Seeking advice from a financial adviser can help you choose the most suitable investment option.

Your investment is not guaranteed and you may lose some of the money you have invested due to investment losses. The value of your investments and the level of returns will vary, and while past performance shows how an investment has performed in the past, future returns may differ.

Other risks

Your super should grow at a greater rate than inflation or there is a risk that the real value (buying power) of your savings will decrease. The amount of your future superannuation savings (including contributions and returns) may not be enough to provide adequately for your retirement. The laws that govern super may change and this may affect how you manage and invest your super.

The fund itself is exposed to certain operational risks. The Operational Risk Financial Requirement (ORFR) reserve is to provide funding for material losses that may arise from operational risks (unit pricing errors, major systems failures or other errors, or fraud against the fund) rather than investment risks.

 You should read the important information about the risks of investing in super before making a decision. Go to the fund's website at firststatesuper.com.au/pds and read the Member Booklet Supplement: Investments. The material relating to the risks of investing in super may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

5 How we invest your money

The fund offers 12 investment options which include:

- five pre-mixed options that invest across a range of asset classes, which can reduce the risk of loss if one particular asset class performs poorly
- seven single asset class options that invest in one asset class only, which can give you a greater degree of control over your investment by allowing you to choose the allocation to each asset class.

Generally, you can reduce your level of investment risk by spreading your money across a range of asset classes. This can be achieved by investing in the pre-mixed options or by investing in a variety of single asset class options. You can mix and match the options in any combination.

For the pre-mixed options, each year we set a percentage we might invest in each asset class as a guide – this is called the strategic asset allocation, or SAA.

During the year we may move towards or away from the strategic asset allocation amounts depending on our outlook for the economy and investment markets. As a result, the actual asset allocations will vary over time. Where necessary, we will take steps to maintain the actual asset allocation within + or - 20% of the growth/income allocation shown in Table 2. We may vary the strategic asset allocations and asset allocation ranges for an investment option from time to time without notifying you.

The Standard Risk Measure (SRM) is based on industry standards to allow members to compare investment options that are expected to deliver a similar number of negative annual returns over any 20-year period.

The SRM is not a complete assessment of all forms of investment risk. For instance, it does not show the size of a potential negative return, or the likelihood that a positive return will be less than a member may need to meet their objectives. Further, it does not take into account the impact of administration fees on the likelihood of a negative return.

While it is recommended that the SRM is on a pre-tax basis, we have chosen to calculate the SRM on a net of tax basis because this provides a more realistic comparison between investment options for members as after-tax investment returns are credited to a member's account. You should ensure you are comfortable with the risks and potential losses associated with your chosen investment option(s).

Go to the fund's website at firststatesuper.com.au/pds and read the Member Booklet Supplement: Investments for further information about the SRM.

The investment options, their growth to income allocation and the SRM (risk band and label) for each option are shown in Table 2.

Flexibility

You can make a different choice for your current account balance and future contributions at any time online or by completing the Investment choice (superannuation) form available on our website, or by contacting us. You can transfer balances from another fund online or by using the Request to transfer benefits to First State Super form.

We regularly review the investment options and may add new options, remove existing options or alter the options from time to time without prior notice.

 Before selecting the MySuper Life Cycle strategy or an investment option for your super, you should carefully consider the likely investment return, the risk and your own investment timeframe.

MySuper Life Cycle

If you don't choose an investment option, your super will be invested in the MySuper Life Cycle strategy. The MySuper Life Cycle strategy has a different mix of assets depending on your age (see Table 3). Your super will be invested in the Growth option if you are aged under 60, or the Balanced Growth option if you are aged 60 and over.

If you are invested in the MySuper Life Cycle strategy in the Growth option, your account balance and future contributions will be automatically switched to the Balanced Growth option when you reach age 60.

MySuper return target<sup>1</sup>

The return target is expressed as a target level of return above inflation (as measured by the Consumer Price Index) over a 10-year period from 1 July 2018 net of tax and fees (including administration fees). The return target has been calculated in accordance with requirements that apply to MySuper, which differ from the method used to determine the investment objective shown in the table below.

The return target is the average of the expected returns, based on long-run return assumptions. The return targets for the MySuper Life Cycle options are:

Growth MySuper option: CPI + 3.39% pa

Balanced Growth MySuper option: CPI + 2.54% pa

 You should read the important information about how we invest your money before making a decision. Go to the fund's website at firststatesuper.com.au/pds and read the Member Booklet Supplement: Investments. The material relating to how we invest your money may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

6 Fees and costs

Did you know?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

To find out more

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation calculator to help you check out different fee options.

Table 4 summarises the fund's fees and costs that may be charged to members. These fees and other costs may be deducted from your account, from the returns on your investment, or from the assets of the superannuation entity as a whole. Other fees, such as activity fees, advice fees for personal advice and insurance fees, may also be charged, but these will depend on the nature of the activity, advice or insurance chosen by you. This information can be used to compare costs between different superannuation products. We may vary our fees or introduce new fees at our discretion at any time without your consent. If we increase our fees or introduce new fees, we will notify you at least 30 days before the change occurs. This excludes investment fees which are estimates and the actual fees may be more or less than estimated.

Definitions of the fees and costs can be found in the Member Booklet Supplement: Fees and other costs and on our website at firststatesuper.com.au/fees. First State Super does not pay any commissions to financial advisers.

Table 4: Fees and costs (Personal)

Type of fee	Amount	How and when paid

Deducted from the assets of the option, or the assets of underlying investment vehicles, before the unit price is determined.
Administration fee	$52 per year ($4.33 per month) plus an asset-based administration fee of 0.15% per year ($75 per $50,000). The asset-based administration fee is capped at $750 per year ($62.50 per month).	Deducted from your account at the end of each month, or on exit. Fees for part of a month are calculated based on the number of days you were in the fund. The asset-based administration fee is charged from the month your first contribution or rollover is received.
Buy-sell spread	Nil	The fund does not charge a buy-sell spread.
Switching fee	Nil	The fund does not charge a switching fee.
Exit fee	Nil	The fund does not charge an exit fee.
Advice fee relating to all members investing in a particular MySuper product or investment option	Nil	No advice fee is charged for providing general and simple advice limited to your First State Super account.
Other fees and costs<sup>2</sup>	Comprehensive financial advice	⚠ Additional fees may be paid to a financial adviser. The fees will depend on the complexity of the advice you are seeking. If you obtain more comprehensive financial advice from a planner in our financial planning business, you will be informed of the fee before you proceed. If you are issued with a Statement of Advice, it will contain details of the fees, which may be deducted from your account when the advice is received (or you may need to pay the fee directly). See the Member Booklet Supplement: Fees and other costs.
	Family law application fee of $110	Payable to us by the person making the request for information at the time a request is made.
	Family law splitting fee of $88	Shared equally between both parties and deducted from each party's benefit at the time the benefit is split unless all of the benefit is going to the non-member spouse (in which case the non-member spouse pays the full fee).
	You will pay insurance premiums if you have insurance. In addition, to offset the costs of administering your insurance, for unit-based cover we retain $1.20 per year per unit of death and total and permanent disablement (TPD) cover, and $0.60 per year per unit of death only cover.	Deducted from your account at the end of the month or on exit, as part of the insurance premium. Fees for part of a month are calculated daily.
Indirect cost ratio	Nil	All indirect costs are included in investment fees.

<sup>1</sup> Investment fees may vary from year to year and cannot be precisely calculated in advance. These amounts are an estimate of the fees and costs of each option for the 12 months to 30 June 2018. Past costs are not a reliable indicator of future costs. The investment fees for all investment options are provided on page 4 of the Member Booklet Supplement: Fees and other costs.

<sup>2</sup> For more information on 'Other fees and costs' (also called 'Activity fees'), see the Additional explanation of fees and costs section in the Member Booklet Supplement: Fees and other costs.

Example of annual fees and costs

This table gives an example of how the fees and costs in the MySuper Life Cycle strategy for this superannuation product can affect your superannuation investment over a one-year period. You should use this table to compare this superannuation product with other superannuation products.

EQUALS Cost of product <sup>2</sup>		If your balance was $50,000, then for that year you will be charged fees of $527 for the superannuation product.	EQUALS Cost of product <sup>2</sup>		If your balance was $50,000, then for that year you will be charged fees of $507 for the superannuation product.

<sup>1</sup> These amounts reflect the estimated investment fees for the 12 months to 30 June 2018. The actual amount you'll pay in future years will depend on the actual fees, costs and taxes incurred by us in managing the investment option.

This example is illustrative only. What it costs you will depend on the investment option you choose.

 ASIC provides a calculator on its MoneySmart website, www.moneysmart.gov.au that can be used to calculate the effect of fees and costs on account balances.

 You should read the important information about fees and costs before making a decision. Go to the fund's website at firststatesuper.com.au/pds and read the Member Booklet Supplement: Fees and other costs. The material relating to fees and costs may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

7 How super is taxed

Tax concessions make super a tax-effective way to save for your retirement.

Tax on contributions

Concessional (before-tax) contributions to your super (including compulsory employer and salary sacrifice contributions) and personal contributions claimed as a tax deduction are generally taxed at 15%. A provision for this tax is deducted from your account. Additional tax may be payable under certain circumstances, read the Member Booklet Supplement: Tax and super for further information. Contributions that exceed the concessional contribution cap for the financial year may be included in your assessable income and taxed at your marginal tax rate, plus an interest charge, on top of the 15% contributions tax.

Non-concessional contributions and other contributions to your super, which include spouse contributions, government co-contributions and contributions made from your after-tax salary or from your own savings, are not taxed. The government has set limits on the amount that may be contributed after tax to super in a financial year.

 Contributions that exceed the annual limit may attract additional tax.

Tax on investment income

Investment income is generally taxed at 15%, but offsets (tax credits and rebates) may reduce the effective tax rate. Tax is deducted from investment income before daily unit prices are determined.

Tax on your super benefits

Withdrawals from your super account may be taxed if you are aged less than 60 and any applicable tax will be withheld from your benefit payment. Once you turn 60, generally no tax applies to withdrawals, unless you are a temporary resident.

 You may wish to provide your tax file number (TFN). It's not compulsory to provide your TFN, but if you don't you may pay additional tax on your contributions and benefit; and some contributions may not be accepted. It will also be more difficult to trace different superannuation accounts in your name. By providing your TFN, you can help ensure that you receive all your super benefits when you retire.

 You should read the important information about tax and super before making a decision. Go to the fund's website at firststatesuper.com.au/pds and read the Member Booklet Supplement: Tax and super. The material relating to tax and super may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

8 Insurance in your super

First State Super provides death cover (including terminal illness cover), death and total and permanent disablement (TPD) cover and income protection cover.

! Information about eligibility, cancellation, conditions, and exclusions that may affect your entitlement to insurance cover can be found in the Member Booklet Supplement: Insurance (Personal) available on our website and by contacting us. You should read this information before deciding whether the insurance is appropriate for you.

Death and total and permanent disablement cover

As a fund member, if you are aged between 15 and less than 70, you can apply for death and TPD cover or death only cover.

A death, terminal illness or TPD benefit is paid as a lump sum. Certain occupations will not be able to receive certain types of insurance. For more information, please refer to the Member Booklet Supplement: Insurance (Personal). A terminal illness or TPD benefit can only be paid if you meet the applicable definition under the insurance policy, your claim is accepted by the insurer and you must meet a condition of release under superannuation law. Insurance cover stops at age 70 (except terminal illness cover which stops at age 69) and a restricted definition of TPD applies from age 65. Definitions are explained in the Glossary section of the Member Booklet Supplement: Insurance (Personal).

You can apply for cover as:

- unit-based cover, where your benefit amount depends on your age and occupation insurance category; and/or
- fixed cover, where the benefit amount is fixed, regardless of your age.

Insurance cover is provided to First State Super under an insurance policy issued to the trustee by TAL Life Limited (ABN 70 050 109 450, AFSL 237848).

If your application for cover is accepted by the insurer, you will be given an insurance category based on your occupation. If you are employed in a low-risk clerical or management occupation, you can apply to be in the Basic Plus insurance category.

If you have fixed cover, the cost of your cover will depend on your age and occupation insurance category. If you have unit-based cover, the cost of your cover is fixed but your occupation insurance category will determine the value of your insurance benefit.

You can apply to the insurer to change your occupation insurance category by completing the Application to change insurance category rating form. The form is available on our website and by contacting us.

Amount of cover

You may elect to apply for any level of cover, up to the maximum amount. The maximum amount of insurance cover is unlimited for death, $5 million for terminal illness, and $5 million for TPD cover.

The cost of your death and TPD cover

Table 6 shows the cost of death and TPD cover per unit of cover and summarises fixed cover premiums. The cost of cover may change in the future. Refer to the Member Booklet Supplement: Insurance (Personal) for further information. Insurance premiums are deducted monthly in arrears from your super account. The cost of cover for part of a month is calculated on a daily basis. If there is not enough money in your account, your insurance cover will stop.

Table 6: Cost of death and TPD cover

Unit-based cover

📊 The insurance calculators on our website can help you decide how much insurance you need.

Income protection cover

Income protection insurance provides a monthly income benefit, which is a percentage of your pre-disability income, if you become sick or injured and are not able to work, as defined by the insurance policy. You have a choice of benefit payment periods.

As a fund member, if you are aged between 15 and less than 65 and you are gainfully employed for at least 15 hours per week, you can apply, depending on your occupation, for income protection insurance cover under an insurance policy issued to the trustee by TAL Life Limited. You have the choice of benefit options, shown in Table 7.

Table 7: Income protection cover options

	Two-year benefit period	Five-year or to age 65 benefit period
Income replacement ratio	50% or 75%	50% or 75%
Waiting period	14, 30, 60 or 90 days	30, 60 or 90 days
Cover for superannuation contributions benefit	10% of monthly income	10% of monthly income
Maximum insured monthly benefit	Up to $50,000 per month <sup>2</sup>	Up to $40,000 per month <sup>2</sup>

The cost of your income protection cover

A premium is deducted from your super account monthly, in arrears. The premium is calculated using your age, occupation insurance category, income replacement ratio (50% or 75% of your monthly income), and selected benefit options.

It is not compulsory to provide your TFN but if you don't, you may pay additional tax on your contributions and benefit payments, and some contributions may not be accepted.
